At the conclusion of this course, students will be able to apply the requirements of:

- Knowledge and application of TOSHA’s Bloodborne Pathogens standard 1910.1030 as it relates to first aid providers, including the written exposure control plan, personal protective equipment, safer medical devices, Hepatitis B vaccinations, medical records and training.
- Knowledge and application of TOSHA’s Globally Harmonized System (GHS)/Hazard Communication standard 1910.1200 as it relates to the use of decontamination chemicals used during a first aid or injury incident, including the written program, GHS labels, Safety Data Sheets, records and training.
- Knowledge and application of TOSHA’s Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) standard 1910.132 as it relates to the use of decontamination chemicals along with other PPE uses in industry. Knowledge of TOSHA’s top 20 Most Cited standards in General Industry/Manufacturing.

Cost: Member: $170
Non-Mem: $340

Time: 8:30 am - 4:00 pm

Instructor(s): TOSHA Training Specialist

Questions:
Brent Ogles
brentogles@taud.org
615-900-1011